Criminology and Criminal Justice – Instructor I, Term

Academic unit:	Criminology and Criminal Justice
Category of appointment:	Term (2 Years)
Field of specialization:	Criminology and Criminal Justice or Related Field
Rank/Position title:	Instructor I
Start date:	July 1, 2018
Closing date for applications:	Consideration of Applications will begin on November 16, 2017 and continue until the position is filled

About the position:

The Institute of Criminology and Criminal Justice invites applications from qualified candidates for a two-year term appointment in Criminology and Criminal Justice at the rank of Instructor I beginning July 1, 2018.

About the Academic Unit

The Institute of Criminology and Criminal Justice offers an interdisciplinary undergraduate program in collaboration with the Departments of Psychology, Sociology, and Law and Legal Studies. For more information, please visit our website at: <https://carleton.ca/criminology/>.

Qualifications:

Applicants must hold a Ph.D. (or expected in 2018) in a relevant discipline or program with a strong background in criminological theory and methods, and demonstrate excellence in teaching. Teaching expertise in critical criminology, criminological theory, methodology, and interdisciplinary approaches to criminology and criminal justice will be strongly favoured. The successful candidate will teach in the undergraduate program of Criminology & Criminal Justice, including courses in Introduction to Criminology and Criminal Justice, Criminological Theories, special topics at the third- and fourth-year level, and one or both of Quantitative Research Methods and Qualitative Research Methods. There are no research expectations associated with this position.

Application instructions:

Applications should include: (i) a cover letter outlining the applicant's current and future research and teaching interests; (ii) a curriculum vitae; and (iii) materials relevant to teaching experiences and teaching philosophy. Please have three referees submit letters of recommendation. All of these materials should be sent, in one single PDF, to the Director of the Institute of Criminology and Criminal Justice at evelyn.maeder@carleton.ca. Consideration of complete applications will begin on November 16, 2017 and continue until the position is filled.

Please indicate in your application if you are a Canadian citizen or permanent resident of Canada.

About Carleton University:

Join our intellectual and collaborative community of scholars. Carleton University is a dynamic and innovative research and teaching institution with a national and international reputation as a leader in collaborative teaching and learning, research and governance.
